Andhra Pradesh Vahanamitra Scheme

The Vahanamitra Scheme is a welfare initiative launched by the Government of Andhra Pradesh to provide financial assistance to auto-rickshaw and taxi drivers in the state. The scheme is aimed at supporting drivers who depend on commercial vehicles for their livelihood and often face financial instability due to fuel costs, maintenance expenses, and irregular income.

Launch Year: The Vahanamitra Scheme was introduced in 2019 by the Andhra Pradesh Government and has continued with periodic renewals under successive administrations.

Objective

The primary objective of the scheme is to:

- Provide financial relief to auto and taxi drivers
- Support self-employed drivers in meeting vehicle maintenance and livelihood expenses
- Improve economic stability among transport workers in Andhra Pradesh

Beneficiaries

The scheme benefits:

- Auto-rickshaw drivers
- Taxi drivers (including cab drivers)
- Drivers must be residents of Andhra Pradesh and should own or legally operate a commercial vehicle registered in the state.

Financial Assistance (Allowance Amount)

Under the Vahanamitra Scheme:

- Eligible beneficiaries receive a one-time financial assistance of ₹10,000 per year
- The amount is directly credited to the beneficiary's bank account through the Direct Benefit Transfer (DBT) system.

Application Process

Eligible drivers can apply through:

- Online mode via the official Andhra Pradesh government welfare portals (such as navasakam.ap.gov.in or related transport/welfare portals)
- Offline mode through:
  - Village or Ward Secretariats
  - Gram Sachivalayams

The application process generally involves:

- Aadhaar authentication
- Submission of driving license and vehicle documents
- Bank account details for DBT

Mode of Payment

- The financial assistance is transferred directly to the beneficiary's bank account using the DBT mechanism, ensuring transparency and minimizing intermediaries.
